april 22 was proclaimed earth day at w.p.c.c. students worked to achieve the title motto: "to haul away waste and garbage-prevent environmental nastiness."
these observations were made by faculty members:
"it would appear that the law enforcement people are not the only "pigs" in the area." — giles shepherd
"we should do it again." — gwen eller

"there seems to be among the students an awareness of the situation our environment is in." — jack huss
"it is most gratifying for us to know that the students and faculty have taken steps, in a constructive fashion, to do something about ecological and environmental problems."
— dr blank

flying club
keeps the faith

interested students of w.p.c.c have kept the newly-formed flying club living this year. the purpose of this club is to gather aviation-minded students in order to educate and promote the interest of flying. also, an aim is to finance solo flights for the members of the club. this first year of organization, no money was allotted by the s.g.a. however, a budget will be drawn up for next year to aid the 1971-72 club.

members of the veterans club are bound together by a common asset. each member has served in the armed forces of the united states and their goal as members of the veterans club is to attempt to readjust to civilian life and to keep informed of veteran benefits.

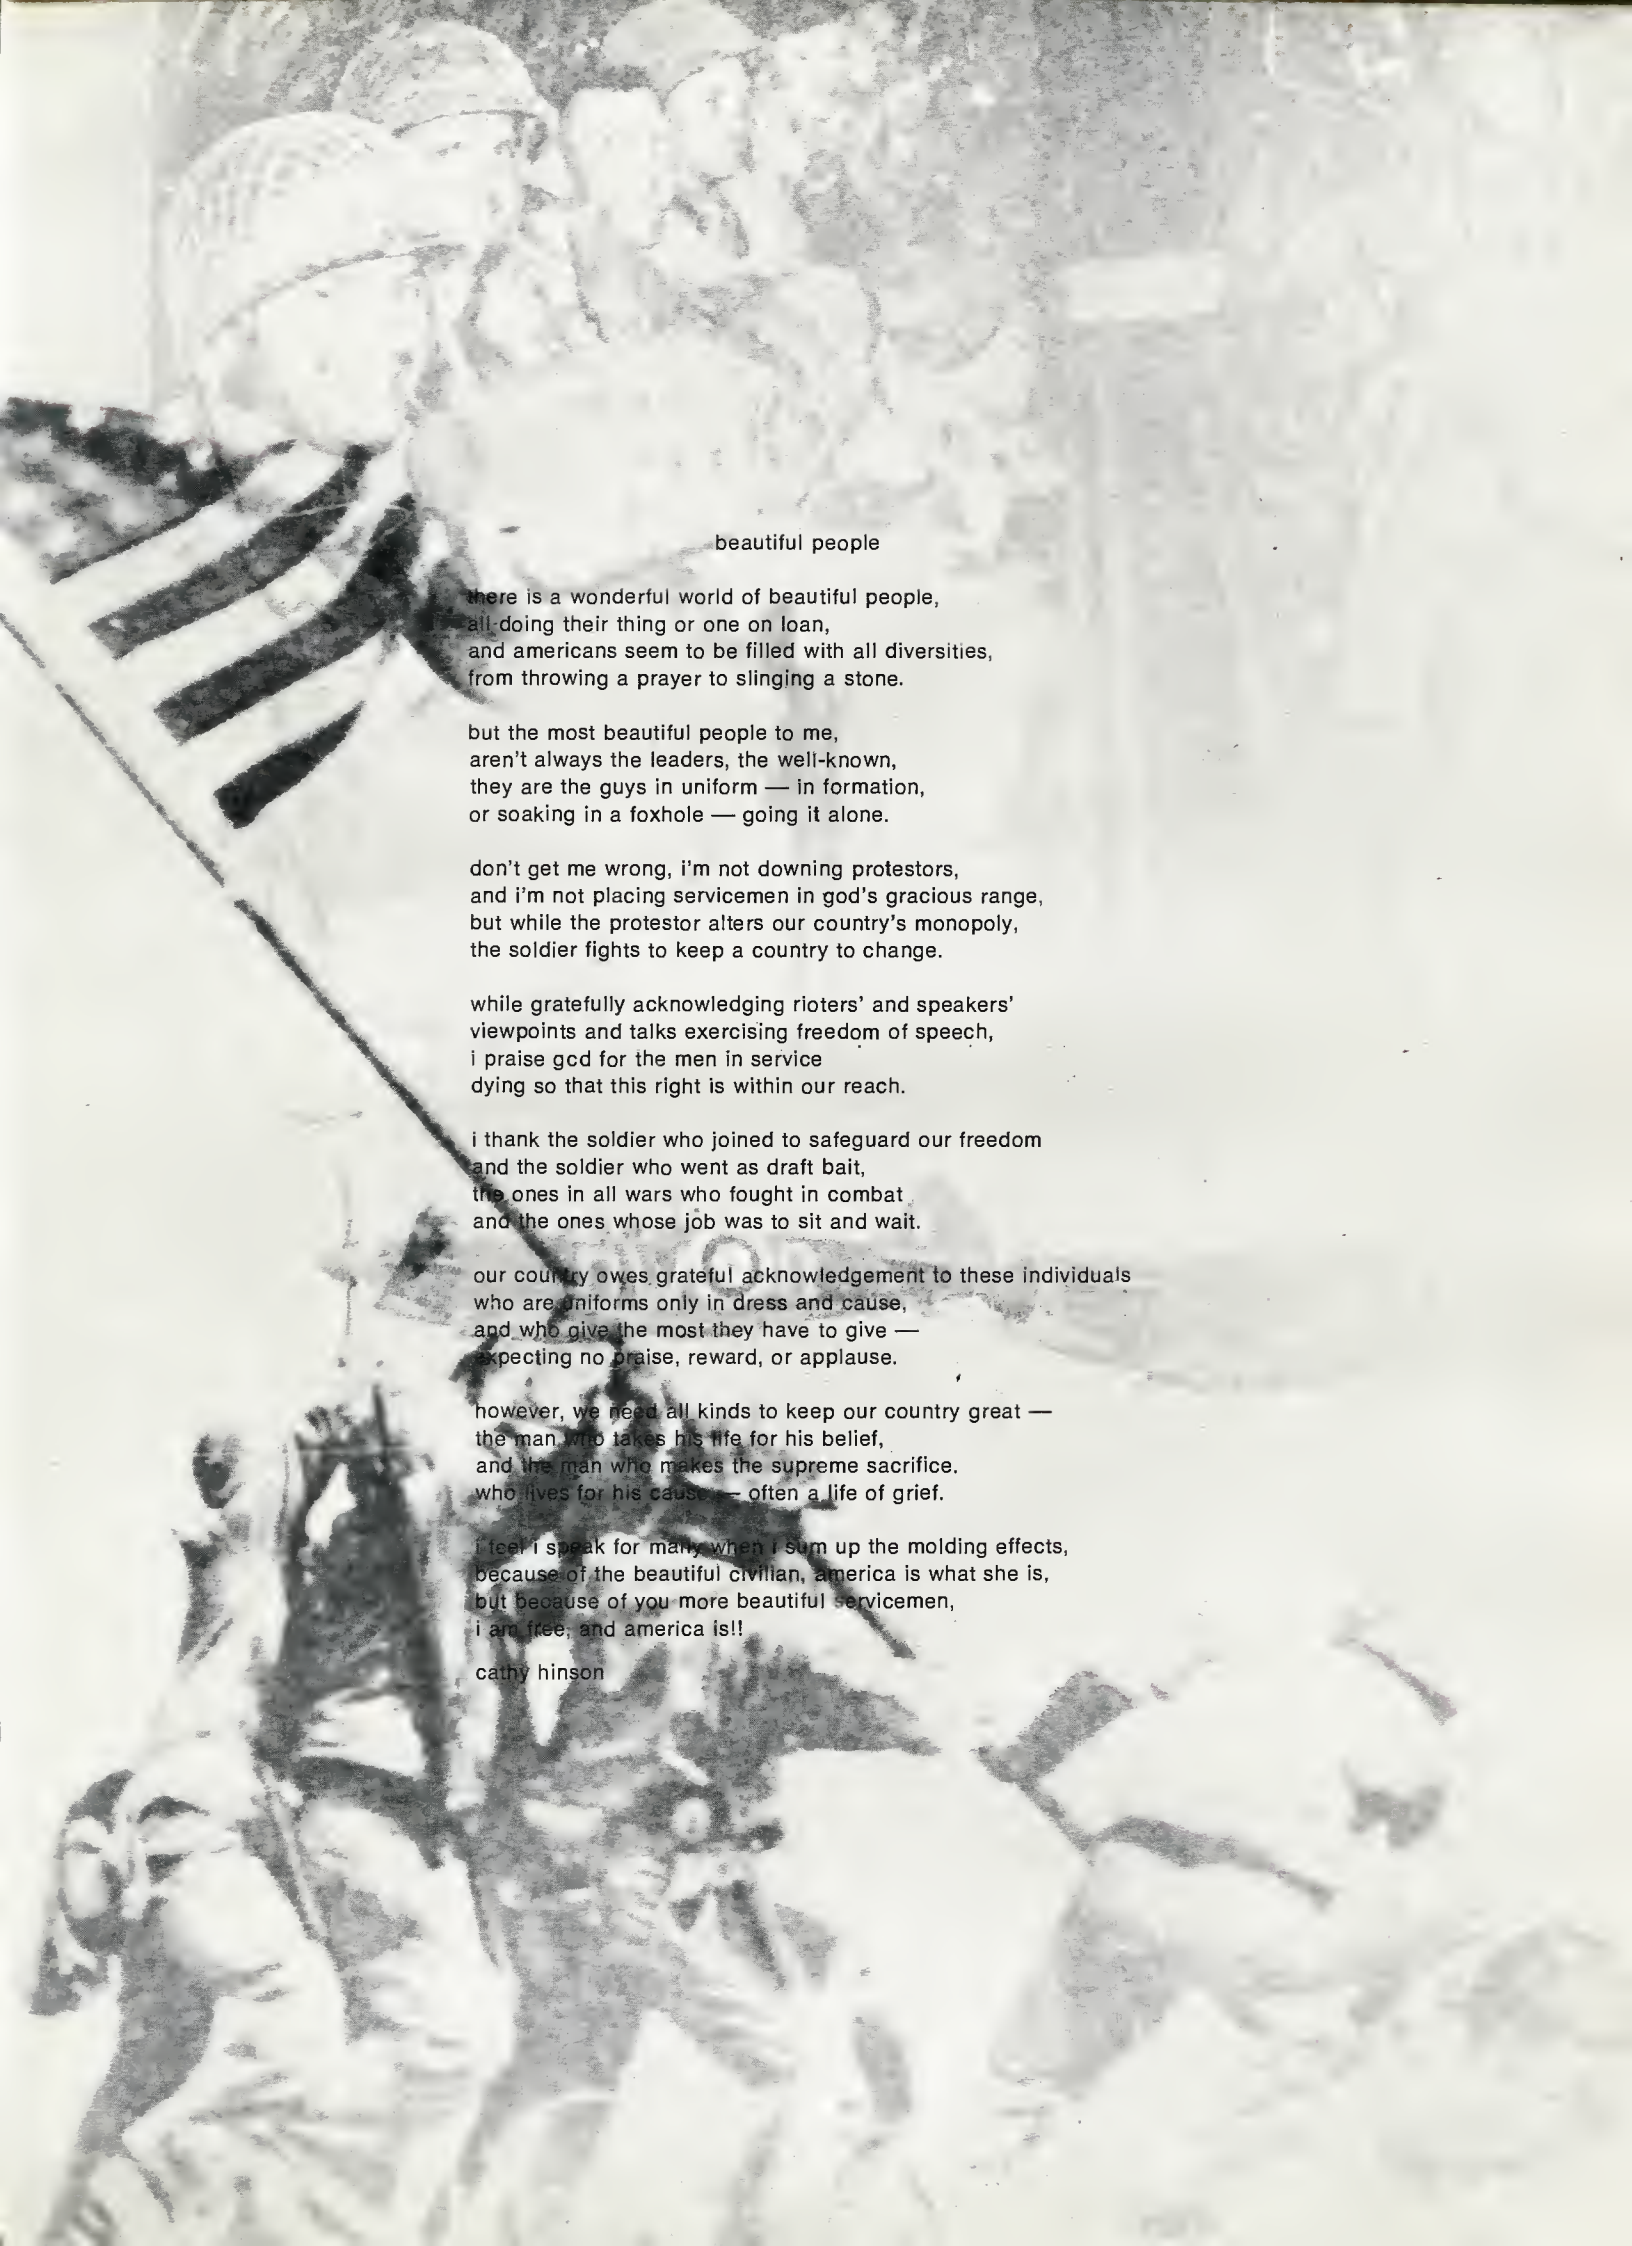

sna promotes rn's

the student nurses association of wpcc is a part of the national organization. the purpose of the sna at wpcc is to bring together both classes of nursing students for the mutual benefits of extra curricular medical knowledge and enjoyment. through college, district, state, and national meetings, sna members are given the opportunities for meeting other students in the nursing field and for sharing experiences.

beautiful people

there is a wonderful world of beautiful people, all doing their thing or one on loan,
and americans seem to be filled with all diversities, from throwing a prayer to slinging a stone.

but the most beautiful people to me, aren't always the leaders, the well-known,
they are the guys in uniform — in formation, or soaking in a foxhole — going it alone.

don't get me wrong, i'm not downing protestors,
and i'm not placing servicemen in god's gracious range,
but while the protestor alters our country's monopoly,
the soldier fights to keep a country to change.

while gratefully acknowledging rioters' and speakers' viewpoints and talks exercising freedom of speech, i praise god for the men in service dying so that this right is within our reach.

i thank the soldier who joined to safeguard our freedom and the soldier who went as draft bait, the ones in all wars who fought in combat and the ones whose job was to sit and wait.

our country owes grateful acknowledgement to these individuals who are uniforms only in dress and cause, and who give the most they have to give — expecting no praise, reward, or applause.

however, we need all kinds to keep our country great —
the man who takes his life for his belief, and the man who makes the supreme sacrifice,
who lives for his cause — often a life of grief.

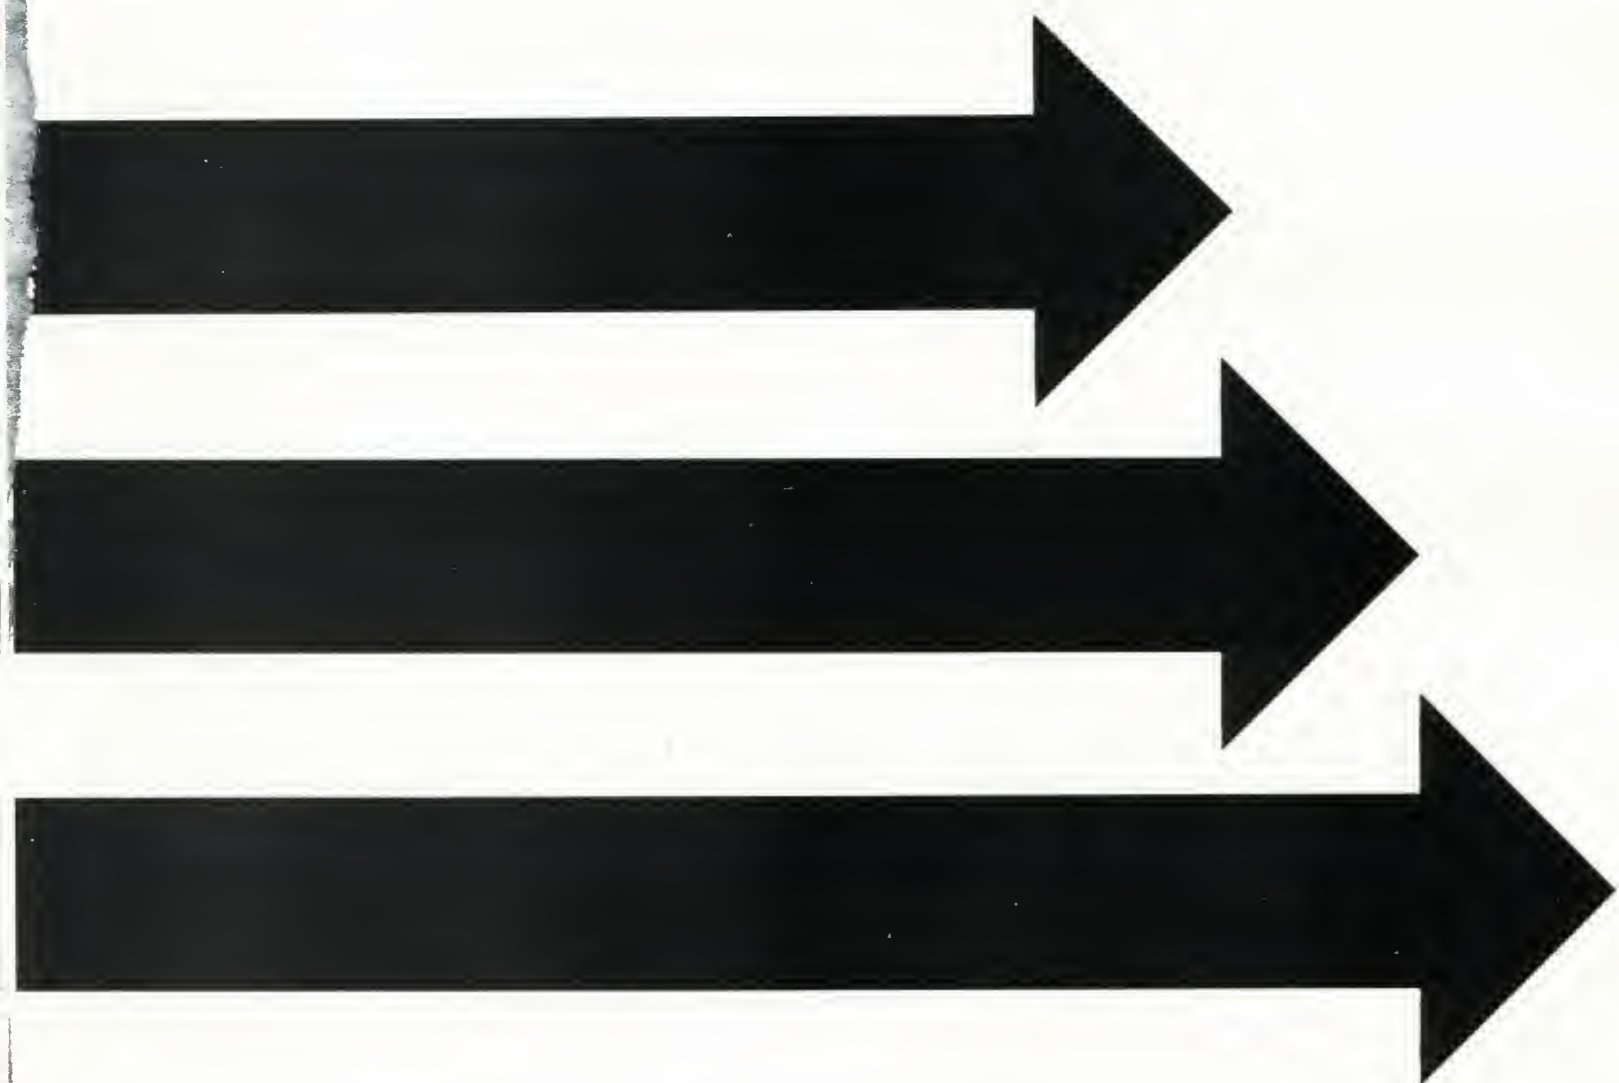

i feel i speak for many when i sum up the molding effects, because of the beautiful civilian, america is what she is,
but because of you more beautiful servicemen, i am free, and america is!!

note
from the staff

this yearbook comes to you through the joint efforts of a sincere and devoted staff. our objective has been to record memories and reflections and flashbacks . . . the happenings. w.p.c.c. — the medium that has brought us together — a place where the only constant is change — once a dream, now a reality.

the staff wishes to thank all those people who aided immensely to the publication of this yearbook. our wholehearted thanks go to charles hunter and doug pruden of hunter publishing company for their understanding and fortitude; to william settlemyre, fred hampton, and tommy williams for their art work on the division pages, and to hallies for the supplying of materials; to fred hampton and buddy noles for their extended advice and use of audio-visual facilities; to mary carswell, ronnie hudson, and little "t" for their proofreading, typing, and tolerance; to giles shepherd for photography advice, and to jerry garrell for darkroom furniture and admittance of the photographers to the roof, under the floors, and between the walls of the buildings.

without the contributions of these and many others, the publication of this yearbook would not have been possible.

a special thanks goes to our sponsor, miss irma dantzler, for her time, understanding, time, devotion, time, leadership, and time, time, time . . .

Dick Cavett Picked for Joey Bishop's Job

Hollywood, Calif. — AP — Dick Cavett, onetime gag writer for the close friend of Johnny Carson, is the American Broadcasting Co. choice to succeed Bishop on its late night talk show.

The show — originating from New York instead of Hollywood — will compete with Carson's NBC-TV program.

The selection of Cavett was announced Wednesday by Elton H. Rule, president of ABC. The new show, to premiere Dec. 29, also will compete against the Merv Griffin Show on CBS.

Bishop left the show Tuesday night.

It had been announced earlier in the day that the Bishop show, begun in April, 1967, would end late in December because of a drop in ratings. ABC said guest hosts would ward the intellectual vein but he is equally capable of the homespun variety.

Some of his most engaging routines deal with his experience as a native of Gibbon, Neb., caught up in the Ivy League traditions of Yale university.

He was a comedy writer for Jack Parr and others before becoming a comedian himself about four years ago.

Cavett, 33, first appeared on the ABC network in two specials, "Where It's At" and "What's In."

In 1968 he began regular morning appearances on "This Morning," a talk program later retitled "The Dick Cavett Show."

The show was later canceled

Show Business

On the spur of the moment, President Nixon donned black tie Wednesday night to go to a concert of the National symphony orchestra at Constitution Hall.

He was accompanied only by his special assistant for cultural affairs, Leonard Garment.

The concert featured pianist Van Cliburn. It was the second performance of the symphony after a six week strike of the musicians. The season opened Tuesday.

Nixon had had dinner earlier with his family and Thanksgiving holiday guests, Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower and her 89 year old uncle, Joel Carlson of Boone, Iowa.

San Francisco, Calif. — AP — A new two year contract which the San Francisco symphony says will raise minimum salaries about 25% has been negotiated. The pact, announced Wednesday, guarantees a $10,080 minimum salary for the 1969-70 season and $11,000 the following year.

Anthony Newley, singer, actor, composer and writer, will perform at the Lake Geneva Playhouse club Dec. 12-20.

Newley, 38, collaborated on and starred in the Broadway musicals "Stop the

Anthony Newley

World, I Want to Get Off" and "The Roar of the Greasepaint, the Smell of the Crowd."

Newley most recently wrote, directed and starred in the controversial film "Can Heironymous Merkin Ever Forget Mercy Humppe and Find True Happiness?"

London hippies who plan to set up a dropout's paradise on a deserted Irish island owned by Beatle John Lennon were told Wednesday to stay away.

Residents on the Irish mainland fear that the hippies will bring drugs and free love and corrupt their daughters.

Earlier this month Lennon offered the tiny island of Dorrinish off Ireland's Atlantic coast free of charge to the hippies.

The Irish Countrywomen's association plans a mass meeting in Westport, the nearest mainland town to the island, to organize a protest.
